

Do you remember the sensational rise of M.G. fame? Suddenly M.G. swept the board—first in this country, then on the Continent. "M.G. first, second and third" became the order of the day. It was not for the sake of medals and trophies that M.G. concentrated upon racing and road trials—until virtually every honour had fallen to them. It was because there is no finer school in which to learn hard lessons. Those triumphs have made the M.G. the finest and fastest small sports car in the world.
